STOLEN GOODS.

By Hal E. Roach.

A wealthy man's daughter, afflicted with Kleptomania, meets Jimmy Jump, department store clerk through an auto accident. Later that day, the Department store detective tells Jimmy he has caught a shoplifter -- none other than the girl of the auto accident. Jimmy in love with the girl intercedes for her. A high-priced specialist is called in and asks a fee of ten thousand dollars. Jimmy, inspired by a brilliant idea - feeds the girl a magic pill - and collects from her father.
